VERITAS RECRUITING OFFERING A NEW CHOICE FOR HOSPITALITY SEARCH NEEDS

Coos Bay, OR Veritas Recruiting, an executive search firm specializing in the upscale hospitality market, announces the beginning of their business today.

"I am excited to be creating a new recruitment firm intent on delivering the very best personalized search services to our clientele," said Steve Delgado, president of Veritas Recruiting. "It is our goal to prove ourselves as the recruiter of choice for our carefully selected clients." "By utilizing cutting edge technology with a hands-on commitment to never lose touch with our clients' and candidates' needs we will deliver the highest level of service our discriminating clients demand and deserve."

Delgado brings over five years of experience in hospitality recruitment. Most recently as head of recruitment for The Mill Casino Hotel & Resort he also worked previously for Premier Hospitality Recruiter, Inc. PHR client base included Noble House Hotels, The Breakers, Sofitel, Ritz-Carlton, Benchmark Hospitality, KSL Resorts, Renaissance, Fairmont, Shutters on the Beach, Miraval Spa & Resort, and Inter-Continental, as well as a number of other independent and boutique properties.

The main focus will be on serving luxury and upscale properties located in North America. "Any property will benefit from working with us." "Properties who are individually branded, stand alone, or franchised big brands and do not have access to larger human resource recruitment functions will find our services a key component to their recruitment strategy," said Delgado. "Our job is to find the right candidates who aren't actively looking to change jobs, the ones that passive recruitment techniques such as websites, advertising, and other traditional methods miss." "Our goal is to partner with our clients to bring that missing resource to their search, not mimic their techniques hoping we find the same candidates first."
